

Unit 4 - Answers

Disaster Medical Operations 2 & Multi-Casualty Incidents

1. CERT member Gina is treating a burn victim. Particles of the victim's clothing have adhered to the burn. What should Gina do?
c) Leave the adhered particles of clothing in place
2. Emergency treatment for a third-degree burn includes:
c) Covering the wound loosely with a sterile dressing
3. Assessment of victim injuries should be conducted in a systematic order from:
c) The head to the toes
4. CERT members should use fresh gloves for each patient they treat. When a sufficient supply of gloves is not available, CERTs should:
c) Sterilize gloves between patients using 1 part bleach to 10 parts water
5. A clearly marked _____ helps responders efficiently treat victims.
c) Medical treatment area
6. To protect themselves against fluid-borne diseases, CERT members should:
a) Wear a mask, exam gloves, and goggles
7. A CERT member's main objective when treating victims with suspected head, neck, or spinal injuries is to:
b) Keep the spine in a straight line
8. Connie and Deb are CERT buddies who are assisting with disaster medical operations. All victims in the area have been triaged and treated for any life-threatening injuries. What should Connie and Deb do next?
b) Begin head-to-toe victim assessments

Unit 4 - Answers Disaster Medical Operations 2 & Multi-Casualty Incidents

9. At the medical treatment site, patients should be positioned:
 - c) In a head-to-toe configuration

10. All victims who have third-degree burns should also be treated for which one of the following conditions?
 - a) Shock