

Unit 5 - Answers

Light Search & Rescue Operations

Quiz 1

1. What does a size-up entail?
d) Assessing the situation and determining a safe action plan
2. When conducting search operations what is the best source of information, if available?
c) Prior planning, bystanders
3. Examples of light damage are:
d) Superficial damage
4. A major factor in potential damage to a detached structure is:
d) All of the above
5. Examples of heavy damage are:
b) Partial or total collapse
6. What should you do with a heavily damaged structure?
b) Do not enter
7. Good building codes in an area mean "damage proof" building.
b) False
8. Cribbing is miscellaneous sized wood used to:
c) Stabilize an object to free trapped victims
9. Examples of moderate damage are:
c) Cracks larger than 1/4 inch
10. Size-up is a cumulative process, and each step builds on previous steps. The first step is to:
b) Gather facts